A GLOBAL DESIGN CONCEPT

The Story Unfolds.

SENTTA is more than a furniture design brand,
it's a luxury brand

Based in the north of Portugal - Porto, SENTTA, a premium brand of the Fenabel's Group, harnesses the savoir-faire of world-renowned product designers and over 30 years of industry expertise to create sumptuous and distinctive tables and chairs.

SENTTA's elite team strives to create moments of design seduction, while seamlessly exporting the collections around the world through a select network of interior designers and luxury retailers. All distinctive products follow a zero-waste policy and are registered next to the responsible entity.

SENTTA is synonymous with single pieces that reflect the designer's vision of their culture mixed with fashion and together make up the exquisite and charming Senta collection.

The designer's compass is kept by an uncompromising desire for creative innovation balanced with the integrity of the materials, the artisanal techniques employed and the brand's very own narrative element.

The Adventure Starts Here.

auro collection

BY SENTTA

Auro begins with a northern morning.

The kind of morning where light arrives slowly, brushing wood, linen, and stone with a quiet gold. Nothing is hurried. Nothing is excessive. Beauty reveals itself in softened edges, honest materials, and the calm of space allowed to breathe.

From this atmosphere, Auro takes shape. Designed as a reflection of Nordic living, the collection draws on the warmth of natural wood, the purity of sculpted forms, and the tenderness of upholstery that invites you to stay. Each piece is conceived as part of a landscape—one where comfort is not indulgence, but ritual; where design does not interrupt life, but moves gently with it.

There is strength in its stillness. Generosity in its proportions. A tactile serenity in the way each curve meets the hand, the body, the room. Solid wood grounds the collection with quiet permanence, while the soft volumes bring a sense of ease, as though shaped by light itself. Rooted in Sentta's mastery of woodcraft, Auro is more than a collection of seating. It is an atmosphere. A way of inhabiting space with calm, clarity, and intention. A reminder that the most powerful luxury is often the one that whispers.

bellagio collection

BY SANTIAGO SEVILLANO

Bellagio is more than a name—it is a state of mind, a vision of beauty where refinement becomes effortless and luxury is lived, not displayed. Santiago captures this aura of rare elegance for Sentta, uniting the noble warmth of wood with the eternal strength of stone and the golden glow of brass. Each encounter of materials is deliberate, creating a rhythm of contrasts that feels natural yet breathtakingly bold—like rolling the dice and always landing on perfection.

With Bellagio, Sentta extends its deep heritage in woodcraft into a universe where every choice is a winning move, reflecting the pursuit of the extraordinary. This collection is not just designed—it is curated for those who seek harmony, sophistication, and the quiet confidence of knowing they have chosen the very best in life.

ada collection

BY MÓNICA BRAGA DOS SANTOS

Designed by Mónica Braga dos Santos, this high end furniture collection is inspired by mid-century modern design, where functionality meets elegant curved lines. These smooth lines are enhanced with layers of volume that invite the touch and offer extra comfort.

ADA is a feminine given name that carries the connotations of “nobility” and “adornment”, a perfect fit for this luxurious collection.

The ADA collection is made in ash wood, upholstered in cotton velvet and finished in brown pewter. This harmony achieved with the materials’ choice makes it a must have armchair in any mid century modern ambiance.

alma collection

BY ANA COELHO

ALMA is a contemporary organic coffee table that embodies the journey that is the search for the soulmate.

The design is composed by two pieces that formed a platonic relationship between them and can't live apart from each other. The two pieces merged together harmoniously, creating a unique and enticing form.

carson collection

BY AITOR GARCIA VICUÑA

The Carson model is an amazing screen that goes way beyond just dividing rooms. It's a stunning piece of decorative art that will elevate your space to the next level! Its elegant lines and sophisticated finish blend harmoniously into any space, whether classic or contemporary – it's the perfect addition to any home! Its surfaces often feature intricate details, such as geometric cut-outs or organic patterns, which catch the light and create interesting shadows, adding depth and something ethereal to the room. In addition to its practical function, the Carson serves as a visual focal point that transforms and enriches the atmosphere, making it an ideal choice for those looking to combine functionality and aesthetics in a single design object. This amazing piece was designed by Aitor Garcia de Vicuña specially for your space.

cintura collection

BY SARA ELIZAGARATE

Cintura seating collection is an ode to elegance and sophistication inspired by the exquisite fashion of the 19th century, where dresses were meticulously crafted to highlight the grace and shape of the waist. This furniture line captures the essence of the gathers that adorned dresses of the time, a meticulous technique that highlighted the natural curve of the waist and can be seen in impressionist paintings that immortalized the fashion of the Belle Époque. They blends the classic with the modern in a unique and captivating way, resulting on a design that promises comfortable seating for hours. The emphasis on details is what makes the Cintura collection unique. Each piece is meticulously crafted to capture the essence of the 19th century, resulting on not only functional but also timeless artistic expressions. A balance between subtle gathers, smooth curves and high quality materials.

clyde armchair

BY AITOR GARCIA VICUÑA

Clyde is a light and luxurious seating design, a Scottish name with Nordic lines that come well-organized in a beautiful piece of furniture, with an aesthetic form, to improve your interior design project.

Inspired by the River Clyde that flows through Glasgow, the back design has clean lines and a wooden structure, where the backrest is crossed, and the curvy arms attach to the legs through a finger joint.

Clyde armchair is handcrafted in ash wood and can be customized according to the customers' needs.

dama armchair

BY ANDRÉ TEOMAN

The DAMA collection is composed by geometric design pieces where angles and simple shapes are the main focus. It is a collection that combines the contemporary design style with the mid-century modern, making it adaptable to diverse decoration styles.

DAMA was designed by André Teoman and is inspired by the board game – checkers. The board and pieces' geometry were elegantly reflected in the furniture collection. The collection is made from ash wood finished in brown pewter and upholstered in velvet.

edge lounge chair

BY MAURO LOURENÇO

Inspired by the origami shapes, EDGE Lounge Chair is a geometric design piece with an imposing figure due to the strong use of wood, especially on the back. This aspect can be softened by the fabric chosen to upholster the piece. EDGE was especially projected considering the minimalist and industrial home decoration styles, though it can be easily adapted to other interior decorations.
